

Cheat Sheet for Subject Verb Agreement Rules!

RULE 1 – A verb agrees with its subject in number.

Singular subjects take singular verbs: The car stays in the garage.

There is an old saying: “Opposites attract.” The rule for singular and plural verbs is just the opposite of the rule for singular and plural nouns. Remember this when you match subjects and verbs. You might guess that stays and smells are plural verbs because they end in s. They aren’t. Both stays and smells are singular verbs.

RULE 2 – The number of the subject (singular or plural) is not changed by words that come between the subject and the verb. One (of the eggs) is broken. Of the eggs is a prepositional phrase. The subject one and the verb is are both singular. Mentally omit the prepositional phrase to make the subject verb-agreement easier to make.

RULE 3 – Some subjects always take a singular verb even though the meaning may seem plural. These subjects always take singular verbs:

each	someone	neither	one	everybody
either	anyone	nobody	somebody	everyone

Someone in the game was (not were) hurt.

Neither of the men is (not are) working.

RULE 4 – The following words may be singular or plural, depending upon their use in a sentence, some, any, all, most.

Most of the news is good. (singular)

All of the pizza was gone. (singular)

Most of the flowers were yellow. (plural)

All of the children were late. (plural)

RULE 5 – Subjects joined by and are plural. Subjects joined by or/nor take a verb that agrees with the last subject.

Bob and George are leaving.

Neither Bob nor his friends are leaving.

Neither Bob nor George is leaving. (subject after nor is George, which is singular)

RULE 6 – There and here are never subjects. In sentences that begin with these words, the subject is usually found later on in the sentence.

There were five books on the shelf. (were, agrees with the subject book)

Here is the report you wanted. (Is agrees with subject report)

RULE 7 – Collective nouns may be singular or plural, depending on their use in the sentence. A collective noun is a noun used to name a whole group. Following are some common examples:

army	crowd	orchestra	team
audience	flock	public	committee
class	group	United States	jury

The orchestra is playing a hit song. (Orchestra is considered as one unit—singular.)

RULE 8 – Expressions of time, money, measurement, and weight are usually singular when the amount is considered one unit.

Five dollars is (not are) too much to ask.

Ten days is (not are) not nearly enough time.

On occasion, however these terms are used in the plural sense: There were thirty minutes to countdown.

RULE 9 – Some nouns, while plural in form, are actually singular in meaning.

Mathematics is (not are) an easy subject for some people.

Physics is (not are) taught by Prof. Baldwin.

mumps	home economics	social studies	economics
measles	calisthenics	statistics	civics
physics	gymnastics	phonics	news

RULE 10 – Don’t and Doesn’t must agree with the subject. Use doesn’t after he, she, it.

Doesn’t he (not don’t) know how to sail?

They don’t (not doesn’t) make movies like that anymore.
