

Comic Strip Grammar Book Project

Name: _____

Directions: Your job is to create a comic strip grammar book that illustrates the parts of speech and different types of sentences. The book must have a front cover designed from a cartoon or comic strip character (you can use an existing character or design your own). It must also include a table of contents and nine additional pages. (Ten pages in all!) Each of the nine pages must have a key term, definition, a comic example with the part of speech highlighted, and an original sentence with the part of speech highlighted. Be sure your book is neat and complete! You must attach this scoring card to the back of your project.
