

Detective _____'s Diary

Dear Detective,

Oh, no! Ten people have been trapped on Indian Island and are dropping like flies. One amongst them is the killer. It is up to you to crack the case and capture the culprit. Use this detective diary to list clues as you read the book. Make predictions after each murder. Who will be the next victim? Who is the killer? What evidence backs up your theory? Good luck and watch your step.

Cast of Characters

In order to catch a killer, one needs to get to know the suspects. Below is a list of the ten people invited to Indian Island. Draw a picture of what each character looks like, according to descriptions found in the book, and write what the "Voice on the gramophone" accuses them of.
